MAMMA MIA!

Tecumseh Youth Theatre brings Broadway hit to TCA

By MARY KAY McPARTLIN
marykay@tecumsehherald.com

Theater favorite "Mamma Mia!" comes to the Tecumseh Center for the Arts (TCA) on March 20-22 as the last Tecumseh Youth Theater (TYT) performance of the season. Local high school students have been rehearsing for this challenging production since December.

"There is so much singing and dancing," said Director Kim Van Camp. "The cast has been doing such a fantastic job learning all the dances and all the songs."

The TYT students had the opportunity this year to select what to perform and chose "Mamma Mia!" set on a beautiful Greek island with the music of the pop group ABBA helping tell the story of a young woman searching for the identity of her father just before she gets married.

Music and humor drive the musical and required the cast to learn more songs and dances than for any other TYT production. "It's one hundred participation across the board for the whole show," Van Camp said. "It's not a huge cast, but you wouldn't know it by listening to them. They are all phenomenal singers."

Normally the final week before a show the cast and crew are finishing up learning material. Not so for the "Mamma Mia!" group. "They caught on really fast so we have been able to dive deep on the nitty gritty, where other times they would still be learning a few things," said Van Camp. "It's a big show to undertake. The tech crew is going to be in costume to make the quick changes."

Van Camp, in her TYT directorial debut, worked closely with the students to help them understand and develop their characterizations. The fast-moving musical is running very smoothly, and Van Camp credits that to the experience and dedication of the cast and crew. "The kids have done so much work making this show their own," she said. "I have let them work on blocking for their characters. They really have taken ownership of this show and have done a fantastic job. If they get stuck, I'm there to direct them."

Rather than telling the actors what to do when something isn't working, Van Camp encourages them to think about what changes would make the production better. Much time was spent helping the ensemble cast to understand their characters, making the actors better able to inhabit the characters and not just read lines.

"They have made it feel natural to them," said Van Camp. "Even the ensembles, they all have a character and a purpose to be onstage. We don't want them to wander onstage with no purpose."

A good example, according to Van Camp, is the wedding scene, where the joyous feeling comes from a group of people who are celebrating, not pretending to celebrate. "They are into it because this is their family and this is what is happening in their lives now," she said.

All the hard work has the cast and crew for "Mamma Mia!" excited to get on stage. "They are so ecstatic and ready for an audience," said Van Camp. "If I wasn't directing this show, I would pay one hundred dollars to come to this show. I love ABBA. All of the kids in Tecumseh are so talented in so many ways. We are very rich in our community for talent."

"I love watching all the pieces of the show come together," said Heather Rowe, producer for the show. "The best part is when the kids finally start to see their hard work pay off and

Governor declares state of emergency as coronavirus reaches Michigan

By JACKIE KOCH
jackie@tecumsehherald.com

Late Tuesday night Governor Gretchen Whitmer declared a state of emergency in Michigan after announcing that two presumptive positive cases of COVID-19, the coronavirus that started in Wuhan, China, have been confirmed in Michigan.

The last week in February, the World Health Organization (WHO) increased the global risk assessment of the coronavirus to "very high," its highest warning. Across the world there have been 121,340 cases of COVID-19, counted as of the morning of March 11. Of those, there have been 4,380 deaths and 66,909 have recovered from the illness, while there are still more than 50,000 active cases, 89% of those in mild condition and 11% in serious or critical condition. This information changes rapidly as infection information is collected.

One of the Michigan cases is a woman from Oakland County who recently traveled internationally, and the other is a Wayne County man with recent domestic travel.

In the United States, as of the morning of March 11 there were 1,016 cases of COVID-19 reported, with 31 deaths, 15 recovered, and 970 active cases, 10 of which were serious or critical. While these numbers seem low compared to the more than 327 million people populating this country, health officials say this is just the beginning of infection rates in the U.S., and many believe that there are individuals with mild symptoms who are not aware of their infection, or who may not be taking the risk of transmission seriously, and may be passing the virus on to others.

Although those with the virus are told to self-quarantine at home if their symptoms are not serious enough to put them in the hospital, there have been patients in New Hampshire and Missouri who have defied those recommendations and exposed others to the illness as they attended large gatherings.

Imagine That

By Mary Kay McPartlin

Humans love to complain. Those who go through life serenely sometimes seem a little suspicious or odd. "Why are they so happy?" we wonder.

It might be better if instead of complaining we spent more time thinking and analyzing. Full understanding of a situation or a person, reduces complaining a lot.

Currently, people are complaining about the COVID-19 corona virus coverage in the media. People insist the international hysteria is all due to the media and believe COVID-19 is less dangerous than influenza.

There is some truth to this statement. According to the CDC, "so far this season there have been at least 34 million flu illnesses, 350,000 hospitalizations and 20,000 deaths from flu."

So, why make a big deal out of the COVID-19 virus? Well, this is a new sickness and it spreads fast and furious among people.

Humans don't have a natural immunity yet, and there aren't any vaccines to help lessen the effects of the virus. Sure, most of us will get sick and then get better. Easy peasy.

Unfortunately, for the elderly and those with chronic health issues, especially in the lungs, it won't be easy peasy, it will be deadly. The virus will attack them, building into pneumonia and they won't be strong enough to recover.

Worse yet, the infection from COVID-19 will likely come from people unaware they have the virus. Think this is an exaggeration?

Take the time to read about the first cases and deaths in the United States that occurred in one nursing home in Washington state. It happened amazingly fast and before experts even really were aware it was in the country.

This isn't just an election year distraction. It's real and it is all over the world.

For most of us this isn't going to be a life or death situation, thank God. But the way each of us responds to this health crisis directly effects how deadly it will be.

The way to solve the problem is simple. 1) Keep our hands clean. 2) Don't leave the house if we are not feeling well. Really, it's just those two things.

We don't need masks. We don't need to run to the doctor or the hospital if we have a cough or even a fever for a day or two.

Honestly, if everyone would follow those two guidelines every day of every year, the world would stay much healthier. It shouldn't be something we only do for the COVID-19 virus.

Too many of us go to work sick, send our kids to school sick, go to sporting events or out in large groups when we are sick. It's not a big deal, we think, the world can't stop because for a runny nose.

But every time we are out in public coughing or sneezing or with a fever, we put others at risk. We pass off the virus with handshake or a hug. Maybe the next person will get sick, maybe not. But even those who don't get sick can carry the virus on to someone who will get sick.

I got the respiratory flu 15 years ago. I had it for two months and it turned into severe bronchitis.

My body required four courses of antibiotics once it transformed into bronchitis. What came out of my nose was like a horror movie, and at one point I couldn't even stand up to walk.

I recovered, but I ended up with asthma and was on a daily inhaler for five years. It took that long for my lungs to recover from the flu.

Every year I get a flu shot. Some people scoff at those shots. All I know is since getting yearly flu shots, I have never been sick like I was 15 years ago.

Sadly, it takes a long time to get everyone to absorb necessary information and behave appropriately when it comes to viruses. This means the message must be repeated until almost everyone understands.

The situation now requires people to stay home from school and large events. It's not a joke and isn't panic. It is protection.

So, wash your hands. Stay home if you don't feel well. Don't go to the doctor's office or hospital unless you are really sick and have trouble breathing.

We can triumph over COVID-19 easy peasy.

Hidden Lake Gardens' Spring Flower Bulb Show will feature amaryllis, daffodils, tulips, hyacinths and more March 14-29.

Hidden Lake Gardens' annual spring flower show starts Saturday

By JACKIE KOCH
jackie@tecumsehherald.com

A decades-long tradition heralding the end of winter and the beginning of spring will once again bring color, greenery and the heady scent of flowers to Hidden Lake Gardens (HLG), giving patrons a boost of seasonal flora during the annual Spring Flower Bulb Show March 14-29.

Many spring flowers including amaryllis, daffodils, tulips, pansies, orchids and hyacinths will be on display, with thousands blooming in the Temperate House in the Conservatory. The Arid Dome will be lush with flowers and the foliage of spiny and succulent plants.

The gardens have put on a flower bulb show for at least 20 years, according to Managing Director Paul Pfeifer. The process begins with Conservatory Manager Diane Faust and her assistants planning months ahead and ordering bulbs during the previous summer. The bulbs are delivered in October, when they are planted in pots to be set in cold frames for the winter. In February, they are brought out of the cold and are placed in HLG's greenhouses to get the bulbs to sprout, a process called "forcing" that makes the plant think it's spring so the plants will grow and produce flowers.

The process of getting the plants ready for display involves anywhere from three to 10 people including conservatory staff, students, part-time helpers and volunteers caring for the potted bulbs.

The flowering plants will be located predominantly in the Temperate House, but they will also be dispersed throughout the lobby of the conservatory, the Visitors Center, and other locations. Starting Saturday, March 14, HLG will be open to the public from 9 a.m.-7 p.m., hours that will continue through the end of October. The Conservatory and Visitors Center, where the Spring Flower Bulb Show will be held, will be open from 9 a.m.-6 p.m.

On Monday the crew brought the potted flowering bulbs into the conservatory, and Tuesday was the start of the actual design set-up. The Temperate House was closed for the week prior to the show opening to allow for ease of setup.

The annual spring show is well attended, according to Pfeifer. "It is difficult to determine exactly how many people attend the show as it is included with admission to HLG," he said. "We do see an increase in general HLG visitors during the show. We have averaged about 3,600 visitors to the bulb show the last two years."

In addition to the forced bulb plants in bloom, the show will include assorted early spring annuals and other plants already displaying flowers and foliage. "The other thing visitors will notice is that the Tropical Dome is just about emptied of plants and soil," Pfeifer said. "We are preparing for newly amended soil to arrive later in March, then plants will begin to arrive in smaller batches probably starting in April."

Hidden Lake Gardens is located at 6214 Monroe Rd. in Tipton. Admission to the gardens is $5 per person; free for HLG members. There is no additional charge for the Spring Flower Bulb Show, which will continue through Sunday, March 29. For more information, call 431.2060.

River Raisin Watershed Council seeks school participants

The River Raisin Watershed Council is requesting applications for the fifth annual Discover the Raisin Award Program. This year 6th-10th grade teachers of any subject, whose school districts are within the River Raisin watershed, are eligible to apply.

Five successful applicants have the opportunity to be awarded $200 for classroom supplies or other expenses relevant to the proposed project. Eligible teachers can submit a short application form and narrative due by March 13 to be considered for the award. Winners will be announced in April 2020.

A few examples of projects that would qualify: a history class field trip to the River Raisin National Battlefield Park in Monroe, an art class assigned to create artwork inspired by a funded field trip in the watershed, an English class funded field trip in the watershed may be assigned to write a report, or a science classroom could be assigned to identify, catalog and research plants, insects, wildlife or soil structure/geology found in the watershed. Students may use water quality monitoring kits to analyze the data for science class.

A three-person committee, appointed by the RRWC Executive Committee, will choose the five winning entries based on ranking each answer in the application from 1-10 in terms of maximizing students' understanding and exposure to some aspect of the River Raisin watershed. Each applicant may also request to receive a presentation by RRWC staff or volunteers about the River Raisin watershed or a water-related presentation. Interested applicants, schools, and groups within the watershed may contact the RRWC to request a presentation at any time.

The RRWC's Discover the Raisin Award Program is made possible through a generous donation from ITC. ITC is responsible for the utility grid in most of the River Raisin Watershed.

Applications are due March 13. Contact the RRWC at 264.4754 or rrwc@lenawee.mi.us for more information. Applications may be found at riverraisin.org/discover-the-raisin. Send application to: rrwc@lenawee.mi.us or 320 Springbrook Ave. Suite 102, Adrian, MI 49221.

Protecting Wetlands: Vital to Farms and the Environment

According to the Michigan Department of Environmental Great Lakes and Energy (EGLE), wetlands cover 5.5 million acres or 15 percent of land in the state of Michigan. This seems like a small amount of acreage compared to the total 62,713, 600 acres that constitute all of Michigan, however, wetlands are shrinking, and are destroyed more often than saved. Over the decades, Michigan has lost more than 50 percent of its wetlands.

So, what are wetlands, and why should we be concerned that they are eradicated? Michigan law defines a wetland as "land characterized by the presence of water at a frequency and duration sufficient to support, and that under normal circumstances does support, wetland vegetation, or aquatic life, and is commonly referred to as a bog, swamp or marsh." Simply said, it is where land and water meet.

There are four common examples of wetlands, including marshes, swamps, bogs and fens. Marshes are found near streams, lakes, ponds and rivers and range from a few inches to a few feet deep. Swamps are home to water-tolerant trees and shrubs and contain saturated soils and standing water. Bogs are characterized by peat deposits, acidic waters, and a mossy floor, providing a habitat for numerous specially adapted organisms. And Finally, fens are similar to bogs, but are less acidic and have higher nutrient levels.

All of these wetlands provide benefits to farmers, outdoor enthusiasts and to the environment, and especially to water quality. Let's look at some of the advantages of wetlands. First, wetlands absorb water slowly and release it as ground water during dry periods. This sponge-like quality slows waters momentum as it travels to the ocean or the river, minimizing erosion of soils. Loss of precious top soil is critical to maintaining soil nutrients, so important to farmers particularly since weed eradicating chemicals leach important nutrients from the soil.

Secondly, wetlands serve as a filtration system to water. Because the water travels slowly around plants and vegetation, suspended sediments drop from the water flow, keeping pollutants, toxins and nutrients out of the water system. As we now know, water overloaded with nutrients is susceptible to algae bloom, very destructive to plant and animal life.

Finally, wetlands protect against floods. They help to disperse excess water and can store up to 60 days of floodwater according to the Environmental Protection Agency. They serve as a buffer against colder temperatures also, and as farmland has replaced wetlands, crops have become more susceptible to frost. This is true even for farmers as far south as Florida.

Existing wetlands need to be maintained. Lost wetlands need to be mitigated. The goal of mitigation is to ensure that no net loss of wetlands occurs. It is a means of offsetting what has been lost by acquiring a permit to drain or fill a wetland by creating a new or restored or previously existing wetland. Michigan was the first state, and remains one of only two states to have received authorization from the federal government to administer the federal wetland program.

Comparable to rainforests, wetlands provide a unique service to all species on the planet maintaining natural plant and organism growth and providing filtrations systems for clean water. In a time of decreasing soil, air, and water quality, wetlands need to be protected.

Walberg issues statement on coronavirus

Congressman Tim Walberg (MI-07) released the following statement in response to the first confirmed cases of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) in Michigan:

"I am actively monitoring the real-time developments regarding the Coronavirus and its spread into Michigan. My staff and I have been in regular communication with federal, state, and local health oficials and we stand ready to assist. Just last week, Congress passed a bipartisan $8 billion emergency funding package to help ensure agencies on the front lines are well-prepared to combat and contain the Coronavirus. While the immediate health risk remains low, I encourage everyone to take precautions and follow the guidance of public health experts."

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends everyone take basic preventative steps to limit the spread of the Coronavirus, including washing your hands often, avoiding touching your face, and staying home when you are sick. For additional updates and information, constituents can visit walberg.house.gov/coronavirus and CDC.gov.

VIRUS FROM 1A

'We are taking every step we can to mitigate the spread of the virus and keep Michiganders safe'

— Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer

State officials are working to educate the public and address the need for prevention to slow the spread of the virus, which will allow medical facilities to be able to treat those who need the most care.

"We are taking every step we can to mitigate the spread of the virus and keep Michiganders safe," said Governor Whitmer in a press release. "I have declared a state of emergency to harness all of our resources across state government to slow the spread of the virus and protect families. It's crucial that all Michiganders continue to take preventative measures to lower their risk, and to share this information with their friends, family, and co-workers."

Residents are advised to practice steps that will help prevent coronavirus disease, including washing their hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds; avoiding touching their eyes, nose or mouth with unwashed hands; covering their mouth and nose with a tissue or upper sleeve when coughing or sneezing; avoiding contact with people who are sick; and staying home if they are sick and contacting their healthcare provider.

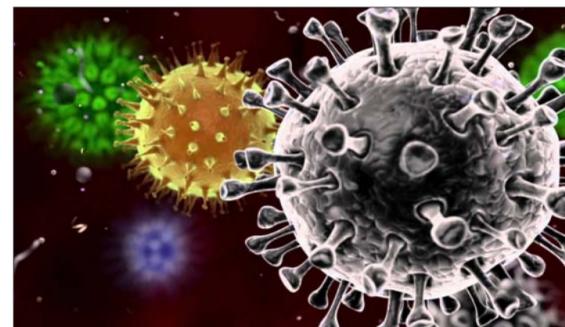

According to the governor's press release, COVID-19 symptoms may appear in as few as two days or as long as 14 days after exposure to the virus. They include fever, cough, and shortness of breath.

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) advises employers to actively encourage sick employees to stay home until they are free of any fever that is 100.4° F or above using an oral thermometer, any signs of a fever, and any other symptoms for at least 24 hours, without the use of fever-reducing or other symptom-altering medicines such as cough suppressants. Employers are also advised to provide disposable wipes so that commonly used surfaces such as doorknobs, keyboards, remote controls and desks can be wiped down by employees before each use.

Another prevention advisement is for employers to consider whether they can establish policies and practices, such as flexible worksites (telecommuting) and flexible work hours (staggered shifts) to increase the physical distance among employees and between employees and others if state and local health authorities recommend the use of social distancing strategies. "For employees who are able to telework, supervisors should encourage employees to telework instead of coming into the workplace until symptoms are completely resolved. Ensure that you have the information technology and infrastructure needed to support multiple employees who may be able to work from home," the CDC website advises.

Depending on infection locations, some early childhood programs and K-12 schools may be dismissed, and there will be those who will need to stay home to care for sick family members or to watch their children if dismissed from school. "Businesses and other employers should prepare to institute flexible workplace and leave policies for these employees," said the CDC.

On Monday Dr. Nancy Messonnier, the director of the National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases at the CDC, said that people who are over 60 years old and those with underlying health conditions like diabetes, heart disease, and lung disease are more vulnerable to getting sick or even dying from the novel coronavirus and should take precautions to protect themselves, and should avoid large crowds or travel on airplanes or cruise ships. The risk of serious illness increases with age.

She also recommended that those more vulnerable have supplies on hand like routine medications for blood pressure and diabetes, over-the-counter medicines and medical supplies to treat fever and other symptoms, and enough household items and groceries so that they will be prepared to stay home for a period of time. The goal of stocking up is so more vulnerable people can minimize trips to the store and stay close to home, she said.

The State of Michigan and the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services were to announce additional recommendations to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 Wednesday afternoon. Updates will be posted to Michigan.gov/Coronavirus and CDC.gov/Coronavirus.

Tecumseh City Manager Dan Swallow said the city is encouraging all city employees to follow COVID-19 prevention practices. "Our primary goal right now is to ensure our employees are following the CDC guidelines," he said. They will also look at the city's facilities to see how they can enhance sanitation. Swallow said that depending on what happens in the days ahead, events at the Tecumseh Center for the Arts may need to be postponed or cancelled. "Hopefully it doesn't go far, but you never know," he said. He has encouraged the Lenawee County Health Department to hold a briefing for community leaders such as city administrators, city managers, and township supervisors to advise them on next steps.

Mark (l) and Margaret Hyre of Tecumseh will play Captain Smith and Margaret "Molly" Brown

TCA dinner show to feature Titanic theme, auction

By JACKIE KOCH
jackie@tecumsehherald.com

A unique event planned for Saturday, April 18 at the Tecumseh Center for the Arts (TCA) will immerse attendees in the world of the RMS Titanic, a British passenger liner that sank in the North Atlantic Ocean in the early hours of April 15, 1912 in the aftermath of striking an iceberg during her maiden voyage from Southampton in England to New York City.

The story of the Titanic, made more widely popular by the 1997 film "Titanic," will be represented during an onstage VIP Titanic Dinner Show featuring the characters Captain Smith and Margaret "Molly" Brown. Brown is also known as "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," because she helped in the ship's evacuation, took an oar to help navigate lifeboat No. 6, and tried to get the crew to take the lifeboat back to save more people.

The event, which will take place from 6-8 p.m., will include pre-show festivities in the lobby, a Chinese Auction, and Captain's Dinner with seven courses on the TCA stage, provided by 3 Dudes & Dinner. The courses will be the same dishes served on the Titanic, including oysters, poached salmon, Consumme Olga, Chateaubriand, cold asparagus vinaigrette, peaches in chartreuse jelly and chocolate and vanilla eclairs.

Captain Smith and Molly Brown will be played by Tecumseh residents Mark and Margaret Hyre, both actors. The Hyres have been presenting the Titanic story since being asked several years ago to portray the Captain and Molly Brown at a local bed and breakfast as part of an annual 12-course Titanic dinner.

Ever since that first Titanic dinner, the couple has been researching their characters and all things Titanic, and have a growing library of Titanic books, attend Titanic events, watch videos and documentaries, and have joined multiple online communities as part of their research. Last year they turned their program for the bed and breakfast into an hour-long drama by writing a 40-page script. "It's kind of evolved over the years and about a year and a half ago we decided to turn it into something really special," Margaret said. "We've spent the last year and a half working very hard on that."

The Hyres are in their fourth year of presenting the story of the Titanic, and are dedicated to accuracy in portraying the events of that tragedy. They will talk about the ship, musicians, some of the passengers and crew, as well as themselves. "We've been careful to be really historically accurate," said Margaret. "We just feel very strongly about honoring the people by telling the truth of what we're learning in our research."

There will be photos of the Titanic projected during the evening, which will start with Captain Smith and Molly Brown at the Captain's dinner, several hours before the ship hits the iceberg. "Scattered throughout the drama will be music that was actually played on the Titanic," she said. She will sing some songs, which will be from the music booklet that was actually given to Titanic passengers long ago.

Toward the end of the evening, the narrative will include the Titanic hitting an iceberg and the ship sinking, and Margaret will talk about Molly Brown's experience in the lifeboat. During the epilogue portion of the evening, Mark will share information on how the shipping industry changed as a result of the Titanic incident, and Margaret will speak about Molly Brown's life after the Titanic.

The Hyres will pay respects to those who died in the tragedy, but the event will also include levity with some lighthearted moments throughout the evening. The production will last approximately one hour and is suitable for all ages.

The Chinese auction will have several gift baskets filled with items from local businesses and TCA donors. Instead of a bid sheet for bidding on the items, attendees will be able to buy tickets to place in bowls in front of each gift basket. The more tickets a person puts in the bowl, the more chances to win.

There will be six tables of 12 seats each for a total of only 72 tickets sold for this event.

Tickets for the VIP Titanic Dinner Show are $50 and may be purchased online at thetca.org, by calling 423.6617, or through the TCA box office, 400 N. Maumee St., Tuesday through Friday from noon until 5 p.m.

TPS board reviews policy/bylaws, okays purchase of copiers

By EMILY LITTLE
emily@tecumsehherald.com

The Tecumseh Public Schools (TPS) Board of Education discussed some changes to its policies and bylaws at Monday night's meeting. These policies had not been updated in approximately three years.

Superintendent Rick Hilderly hopes that these changes to the bylaws will allow updates to become more frequent to avoid outdated policies.

"What we did tonight was take a step towards solidifying our policy manuals," said supt. Hilderly. "One of the bylaws will ensure that we are updating policy through committees."

TPS has worked with Neola, an educational consulting firm based in northeast Ohio, in the past to create its board documents. They hope to continue to use this company so that the policies and bylaws are easily understood and accessible for future board members and administrations.

The first of the policies to be voted on are those that TPS finds to be the most important to abide by current laws. These issues include nondiscrimination, equal employment opportunity, anti-harassment, access to equal education opportunity, and sexual violence. Additionally, the board will be voting on various sets of bylaws to help the board operate smoothly and efficiently.

These policies will be voted on at the next meeting on March 23.

"These items need to be updated to comply with law," said Hilderly.

In addition to discussing these items, the board also voted to purchase new copiers for the district rather than lease them from the company. Some board members expressed concern over the amount of savings included with a lease or a purchase. They were unsure which option would be the most fiscally responsible for the district.

"There is a possibility that we could save $20,000 a year after five years, or the machines could die after four years," said Board President Kevin Johnson.

"It's a gamble and we just don't know."

The service contract with MT Technologies will remain the same with the purchase for the district. This means that MT will continue to service and possibly replace the copiers for a five-year period to ensure that they are running effectively. After this period, the district may choose to purchase new machines or keep the existing ones.

The approval passed on a 4-3 vote to purchase the copiers.

In his report, Hilderly congratulated Jamie Fulton on being named the new principal at the Compass Learning Center. She was chosen from a pool of five candidates within Tecumseh Public Schools and hopes to continue her work since becoming interim principal. He also updated the board on the Building Futures committee and said that they would be ready to begin discussion next month after filling the remaining spots. The committee is made up of a variety of staff, parents, and community members.

Representative Kahle files for re-election

State Representative Bronna Kahle filed for re-election this week, announcing her candidacy for a third term representing Michigan's 57th District in the State House.

"Representing the people of Lenawee County is an honor and I am grateful for the opportunity to carry our values and strong work ethic to Lansing to achieve results that matter. Big changes were made to our auto insurance laws, which will lower rates significantly and I worked hard to stop the Governor's massive tax increases on drivers and small businesses," said Kahle.

"As a former Senior Center Director, my passion is helping the vulnerable. I'm thankful my legislation to help hospice patients was signed into law, along with expanding access to opioid alternatives and making health care more affordable by preventing a new tax on joint and hip replacements. I continue to work on passing legislation to further protect seniors from physical and financial abuse, and to support Meals on Wheels and in-home care," she said.

"With your support, advice and prayers, I will continue listening and working hard for us to strengthen our economy, fix our roads, support quality education, and defend our values and Constitutional rights. Together, we will build a brighter future in Lenawee County and across the state," Kahle concluded.

She and her husband of 29 years, Patrick, have two children, Ben and Rebekah, and a daughter-in-law Savannah. Kahle holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, and an MBA degree from Baker College. She is serving in her second term in the Michigan House of Representatives.

'Anything' Is Good

By Dorothy Grigg

In spite of illness in the cast which forced a week's postponement, the Tecumseh Players are staging a fast moving, colorful musical comedy at the Community Center.

"Anything Goes" is appropriately named with the title being based on events which occur on a ship en route from New York to England.

Colorful costuming and staging adds considerably to the musical which includes several old-time song favorites.

There's no question that Mr. Carlton Cook, as Moonface Martin, steals the entire show with his performance in the song "Friendship," with Dennis Bryan and Dorothy Wetter. It's the highlight of the musical, and the doctor is at his best, including many past noteworthy appearances with the Players.

Dorothy Wetter, playing her part of a madam of harlotry to the fullest, has one of the toughest roles to fill and does it exceptionally well. She "belts" out several old favorites which were well received by the audience.

Craig Collicut does a professional job in portraying an English gentleman who has a difficult task in catching on to American slang, particularly in his scenes with Reno Sweeney, played by Mrs. Wetter.

Dennis Bryan holds the top male role and brings some relaxation to the stage with his ease in singing.

Other performances to remember include Bill Fowle as the purser; Ron Wetter as the hard drinking Elisha J. Whitney; Ellen Todd and the four angels — Laura Hughes, Debbie Cote, Judy Dornan and Linda Hughes.

LOVE SCENE — Judy Hoyt as Hope Harcourt and Dennis Bryan as Billy Crocker were involved in a romance which "Anything Goes" revolved around. This scene shows the two early in the musical and includes an old time favorite melody.

The plot of "Anything Goes" is somewhat far fetched, but the musical moves rapidly, and in this respect it is as good as the Players have done in the past.

Supporting roles by Louise Lawson, Judy Hoyt and Howard Furry, although not glamorous parts, help in keeping the play moving.

When a group, such as the Tecumseh Players, works night and day for weeks without any reward except for a chuckle or two and applause from the audience, you have to admire them for their perseverance and courage — plus a good show which beats watching the "tube."

In comparison to a couple past musicals, "Pajama Game" and "Guys and Dolls," the present production simply does not quite compare, probably due to the more popular tunes in the other musicals.

"Anything Goes" is not recommended here for viewing by youngsters, owing to the number of obvious attempts at seduction and expressions.

However, folks who enjoy musicals should see it. They will discover an enjoyable evening.

Performances will be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, and tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Dornan, 423-7670, or at the door. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Kite Contest Is Slated March 21

A kite-flying contest will be sponsored by the Tecumseh Recreation Dept. Saturday, March 21, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Shady Lake Park.

Contest is open to all elementary children and may be assisted by dad, older brother or sister.

There will be prizes for the most original (homemade), highest flying and longest in flight.

There is a registration fee of 25¢.

Times for the various age groups are: 6-8 years, 10 a.m.; 9-11 years, 11 a.m.; 12-14 years, 12 noon; stunt and acrobatic, 1 p.m.

Registrations may be made at Shady Lane or dropped off at the Community Center.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

The City of Tecumseh should give a word of thanks and praise to the Weaver Disposal Company for the tremendous improvement in the trash collection since the end of December.

Speaking only for the end of the city in which I live, the services have improved 200%. Collection is made early on Tuesday mornings just as announced.

The trucks seem to be in excellent condition and are never hanging over with excessive trash. The men driving and collecting are not only neat in appearance, but courteous as well.

The new square-bottomed bag is a decent improvement over those offered by the previous collection agency. Perhaps the volume is the same, but to this homemaker it seems that more trash can be contained.

Here's hoping that this excellent service can continue and when contract renewal time arrives — whenever it is — that Weaver is given the opportunity to provide the dependable service we lacked for so long.

$2,000 in Fire Damages

Fire broke out last Friday morning in an apartment house at 318 N. Maumee St.

The fire, which started in a davenport, was confined to the living room of the apartment.

When it started, Mrs. William Flanders and her two children ran outside. She saw three General Electric Telephone Co. linemen working on a cable and yelled to them to call the fire department.

Dick Hyatt, of Tecumseh, called the phone company which in turn called the fire department. The other two linemen were Ron Andrews and Hal Bagby.

Mrs. Flanders told Mr. Andrews that a man was sleeping in an upstairs apartment. He made his way upstairs and helped Robert Clark to safety.

Cause of the fire is unknown. Damage was estimated at $2,000 by fire department officials.

Richard Leathers of Vineyard Lake owns the house.

Clinton JV boys basketball February wrap-up

The Clinton JV boys basketball team has been busy the last month. The following is a recap submitted to the Herald last week about several of their games.

The Clinton JV boys came out firing on all cylinders Friday night. However, they would not be able to sustain their momentum and eventually fell to Summerfield 61-52. The loss drops the team to 6-10 overall and 4-6 in the TCC.

Clinton took a 16-10 lead after the first quarter thanks to inspired play on both ends of the court. However, Summerfield made their response by outscoring the Redskins 21-9 in the second quarter to take a 31-25 halftime lead.

Summerfield would not give up the lead and was able to keep Clinton at arm's length reach for the entire second half.

Derek Tomalak played his best game of his career in a Clinton basketball jersey, tallying 15 points. Landon Busz also reached double figures in the scoring column to finish with 13 points. Kyle Wenk added nine points to go with a team high six rebounds. Ethan Herington chipped in with eight points.

After having just about everything find the bottom of the net last Friday, the Clinton JV team had a difficult time locating the basket Tuesday night in their non league game at Ann Arbor Central Academy. The Redskins shot 54% from the field for the game, but could only hit on 27% of their field goal attempts Tuesday night, resulting in a 49-31 defeat. The loss drops the Redskins to 6-9 overall while still remaining 4-5 in the TCC.

After taking an early 4-0 lead, Central Academy went on an impressive 30-7 run to close the half and take a commanding 30-11 lead. The Redskins would not go down without a fight as shown by Clinton's 16-9 scoring advantage in the fourth quarter, but any run that Clinton tried to start was quickly halted by Central Academy.

Lucas Richie led Clinton in the scoring column with nine points and added two steals. Wenk finished with five points to go with a team high five rebounds.

The Clinton JV team came out red hot on Friday night in their home contest against the Aggies of Sand Creek. Despite any changes that the Aggies tried to make, the Redskins stayed hot throughout the entire game and ran away with a 70-32 TCC league win. The win improves the Redskins to 6-8 overall and 4-5 in the TCC.

The Redskins surged out in front early with a 20-4 scoring advantage in the first quarter thanks in large part to the outside shooting display the team put on. The Redskins continued to roll during the second quarter and went into halftime up 33-12. Clinton then outscored the Aggies in the second half 37-20 to win by the final margin.

As a team, the Redskins shot 42% from beyond the arc, making eight of their 19 attempts, while shooting 54% from the field overall. Busz made half of those three-point field goals and finished with 22 points including an impressive 57% (4 for 7) from three while also adding three steals. Tomalak, returning after missing the last game to sickness, also reached double figures to finish with 11 points. Freddie Wade and Bryson VanSickle each gave the Redskins a nice lift off the bench with each scoring eight points, while Wade added six rebounds and VanSickle five. Keegan Huston, Lucas Richie, and Wenk also all contributed four points with Wenk also grabbing six rebounds.

One other note was that this was the return game of Matt Johnson. Matt, who broke his ankle in week one of the football season back in late August, has had a long road to recovery. He was able to make it in the scoring column by finishing two-for-four from the free throw line to finish with two points.

The Clinton JV team took the long trek down U.S. 12 to face the Quincy Orioles in a non-league contest Wednesday evening and came away with a 45-41 victory. The win pushes the JV record to 5-8 overall and 3-5 in the TCC.

Despite the travel, the Redskins came off the bus hot to open an early lead. Quincy then responded with a run of their own to head into halftime up one by a score of 21-20.

Another scoring run for the Redskins in the third quarter proved to be the difference in which it seemed like just about everyone was getting in the scoring column. Baskets by Huston, Richie, VanSickle, and Jacob Gilson all in the third quarter helped surge the Redskins to take a 35-29 lead heading to the fourth quarter.

While in control for most of the quarter, things got close down the stretch thanks in part to some missed free throws by the Redskins. But, it was the Clinton defense that put the clamps down to help secure the win.

Grant Stockford led the Redskins with 16 points, eight rebounds, and four blocks. Busz added nine points. Huston, VanSickle, Wade, and Gilson all finished with three points, while Kovach and Richie each added a basket a piece to finish with two points.

The Clinton JV boys took a one-point lead into the fourth quarter Tuesday night against a red-hot Morenci team that had won nine of their previous 10 games heading into the contest. Then, the wheels fell off as Morenci pulled away, using an 18-1 scoring advantage to win 48-32. The loss dropped the Redskins to 4-9 overall, and 3-5 in the TCC.

The first half was an exciting back and forth half of action. Morenci took a 30-24 lead at the half and put the clamps on defensively, holding Morenci scoreless in the third quarter and scoring nine points themselves to take a 31-30 advantage heading to the final quarter. Morenci was able to flip the script in the fourth to earn the win.

Busz led the Redskins with 12 points and added three rebounds. Stockford chipped in with seven points to go along with eight rebounds and three blocks. Wenk also pulled down eight rebounds to go with his three points, and Ethan Herington finished with six points and five rebounds.

Two THS alumni to compete in Division 1 NCAA wrestling championships

Central Michigan University (CMU) Athletics has announced that Landon Pelham of the Tecumseh High School (THS) class of 2016 and Drew Marten of the THS class of 2017 have earned top-four placements in their weight classes, qualifying them to wrestle in the Division 1 NCAA National Wrestling Championship later this month.

The two teammates competed against athletes from 14 other universities at the Mid-American Conference Championship tournament in DeKalb, Ill. on Sunday, March 8, which led to their placements and qualification for the national championship.

Pelham and Marten have been wrestling together in Michigan and across the country since before middle school. As student-athletes at THS, they both won Michigan Individual Division 2 Wrestling State Championship titles in March 2016. They have been teammates and Division 1 student-athletes at CMU for the last three years.

Pelham is a redshirt junior studying business who wrestles in the 197-pound weight class. A recent NCAA coaches' poll ranked him among the top 30 197-pounders in the country. He placed fourth in the semifinal round of his bracket at the Mid-American Conference tournament, with two of his three victories by first period pin falls.

Marten is a redshirt sophomore who wrestles in the 133-pound weight class. He studies biochemistry at CMU. Unseeded in the conference tournament, he lost in the first round to the eventual champion but followed up with three victories in a row, including one pin, a major decision, and a 5-0 win over the bracket's fourth seeded wrestler. He finished in third place.

"The D1 NCAA National Wrestling Championships will take place March 19 through 21 at the U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis, Minn. Only 33 athletes from across the nation in each of the 10 college weight classes earn the right to compete in the prestigious tournament. It is considered to be the pinnacle of collegiate wrestling. The top eight finishers in each weight class obtain the coveted All-American title," stated the story on the Central Michigan Athletics website.

CLINTON WELL-REPRESENTED AT FORD FIELD

Clinton High School wrestler Brayden Randolph, bottom, finished second in Division 4 at 171 pounds.

Clinton High School wrestler Logan Badge won his second consecutive title with a win Saturday at the Michigan High School Athletic Association Division 4 final at Ford Field.

Kent McCombs, background, of Clinton High School was second in Division 4 at 145 pounds.

By JEFF STEERS
Special writer

Unbeknownst to most high school wrestling fans, it was a tough wrestling season for Clinton High School athlete Logan Badge.

He re-injured his elbow, was out of action for nearly one-quarter of the season, and was sick.

But it all ended well as the Redskins won the Michigan High School Athletic Association Division 4 team title and Badge added another individual title Saturday at Ford Field.

The Redskins qualified 13 wrestlers for the individual finals last weekend. Nine of them earned all-state honors by placing in the top eight in their respective weight classes.

Three wrestled for state individual titles, but Badge was the only one who ended the tournament unscathed.

"I went through a lot this season with sickness and injuries," Badge said. "But all of the adrenaline in my body wrestles away the pain."

He defeated Justin Carnahan of New Lothrop 6-4 in the finals. Carnahan held a 4-3 lead after the first period, but was shut out the remainder of the match.

Badge said he did not change his mindset heading into the individual final. The sophomore moved to the 189-pound weight class this season because he felt quicker and stronger. Badge won a state championship last year at 215 pounds.

Kent McCombs advanced to the state finals at 145 pounds. He lost to Skyler Crespo of Mendon in the final, 11-0. Crespo became a four-time individual champion with the win. McCombs finished the season with 37 wins.

Brayden Randolph finished second at 171 pounds with a hard-fought 3-2 loss to Brock Nelson of Leroy Pine River in the finals. Randolph finished the season with a 54-5 record.

Also earning all-state honors for Clinton were: Connor Busz, third at 103 pounds; Chase Packard finished eighth at 112 pounds; George Ames was third at 135 pounds; Spencer Konz placed third at 160 pounds; Jack Voll finished sixth at 215; and Will Felts was sixth at 285 pounds.

Lucas Petty of Tecumseh High School did not place in Division 2 at 140 pounds.

Britton Deerfield wins opening district game

Britton Deerfield boys basketball competed Monday, March 9 in the D4 boy's district competition against North Adams-Jerome at Pittsford High School.

The Patriots defeated North Adams by the score of 70-23. BD was led by Jacob Delmotte with 19 points and Nico Johnson with nine. The Patriots were scheduled to play against Jackson Christian Wednesday, March 11 in the semi finals of that district. Due to our press time, there will be a report in next week's Herald.

THS boys basketball break losing streak

The Tecumseh Indians defeated the Manchester Flying Dutch on Tuesday, March 3 with a score of 64-59. The Indians got their third win of the season to close out the regular season.

Tyler Horky led Manchester with 29 points. The Indians are competing this week in the D2 district held at Onsted. After the Adrian Maples won their opening district game

Monday, March 9 there will now be a rematch between the Maples and the Tecumseh Indians on Wednesday, March 11. Due to press time, there will be a report in next week's Herald.

10.2. Approval of the 2020/2021 through 2025/2026 Six-Year Capital Improvements Program (roll call)

City Manager Swallow explained that the CIP looks forward six years and assists us with preparing and saving for larger-cost items and improvements. The first few years are dedicated to the higher priority projects while those further out are less of a priority, but the overall plan helps coordinate projects between departments where there may be an overlap of activity. Swallow went on to add that he would like to see us focus on these department overlaps and work harder on securing funding for all CIP projects.

The upcoming budget year looks to include the following projects:

City Hall - administrative roof
TCA - boiler, HVAC and investigation of the building settling in the back

Emergency Services - refurbishing of the ladder truck (which will extend its life by roughly another ten years), replacement of turnout gear

Parks and Recreation - Kiwanis Trail at Cal Zorn Park

Police - new patrol vehicle
DPW - small dump truck, remaining payments on street sweeper, new pickup truck, street resurfacing

Waste Water - lift station at Uniloy, a transformer at the plant, control valves (looking into a variety of financing options for these specifically), sewer defect repairs, service truck replacement, and maintenance and painting of the water tower

Moved by Gary Naugle
Seconded by Stephanie Harmon
Motion to approve the proposed six-year Capital Improvements Program (CIP), subject to annual budget allocations and required expenditure approvals.

10.3. Consider Proposal from Tetra Tech for a Water and Sewer Rate Analysis and Update (roll call)

With the scale of wastewater project improvements planned, we need to be sure our rates will cover the needed improvements. Therefore, it’s time again to have Tetra Tech review and analyze our debt service rates. They will also be looking at what the projected rate increases will be.

Council Member Harmon posed the question of whether legal counsel should be involved. Both City Manager Swallow and Brian Rubel of Tetra Tech commented that because there is nothing alarming about our rates and because our rates are directly related to our debt service that it really is not warranted. However, it is up to Council to exercise that option if they would like.

Moved by Gary Naugle
Seconded by Stephanie Harmon

Motion to approve the proposal from Tetra Tech to analyze and update the City of Tecumseh water and sewer rate structure at a cost not to exceed $18,900.00.

Yes: Jack Baker, Council Member Gary Fox, Council Member Stephanie Harmon, Council Member Gary Naugle, Council Member Austin See, and Council Member Vicki Riddle

MOTION CARRIED 6-0 on a recorded vote

10.4. Emergency Services - Request to participate in 2019 Firefighter’s Act Regional Grant Program (roll call)

Chief Tuckey commented that the FEMA grant is really the only program out there offering grants to the firefighter associations. This grant would be a collaborative effort of seven communities (Hudson, Morenci, Clayton, Raisin, Ridgeway, Tecumseh, and Adrian) purchasing firefighter gear to save money. The cost for the equipment without the grant would cost the City nearly $170,000 as opposed to approximately $17,000 with the grant.

Mayor Baker applauded the efforts of the communities working together to save money for all municipalities and further added that this is the type of collaboration he has been seeking and hopes to see more of in the future.

Moved by Gary Naugle
Seconded by Vicki Riddle
Motion to authorize the participation and submission of a regional grant application to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security 2019 Assistance to Firefighters Grant Act for the purpose of obtaining self-contained breathing apparatuses and to become a participating entity should the grant be approved, and furthermore, to reference the Fire Department General Fund Account 101.336.000-977.400 for the required 10% match and to authorize the City Manager to execute the Memorandum of Understanding.

Yes: Jack Baker, Council Member Gary Fox, Council Member Stephanie Harmon, Council Member Gary Naugle, Council Member Austin See, and Council Member Vicki Riddle

MOTION CARRIED 6-0 on a recorded vote

11. PUBLIC COMMENT RE: ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA

None.

12. COUNCIL COMMENTS

Next Council meeting of March 2, 2020 should be back in Council Chambers.

Mayor Baker announced that he will again be running for Mayor. His priorities will be in the areas of economic development, infrastructure improvements, and the promotion of public safety (specifically, support and collaboration with our police and emergency services departments). Mayor Baker maintained that decisions made by local officials have a far greater impact on our residents and community than those at any other level of government.

13. ADJOURNMENT
Moved by Gary Naugle
Seconded by Stephanie Harmon
Motion to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 8:11 p.m.
